        ABOUT THE LIST PROCESSOR

A second e-mail address is associated with this list, that of the list processor itself: listproc@ukans.edu This is the address to which commands(such as SUBSCRIBE and UNSUBSCRIBE) are sent. Messages sent to this address are not read by a human. Therefore it is imperative that the content of the body of the message consist only of commands. Commands must be very exact. Several commands are available that will allow you to control how and when you receive postings from the list. For a complete list of commands, send HELP in the body of a message to listproc@ukans.edu

To reiterate, this list, as all e-mail discussion lists, requires that you be aware of two addresses. One for posting messages to other members of the list and the other for submitting commands to the list processor. Those two addresses again, are: ELECTRONIC-LAN@ukans.edu   for messages to members of the list listproc@ukans.edu for commands to ListProc

If you wish to leave this list, send email to listproc@ukans.edu
with the following command in the body of the message:
UNSUB ELECTRONIC-LAN
