

/ QUALITATIVE RESEARCH EVENTS

A WORKING GROUP FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS.

Graduate Students!

Are you involved in or interested in qualitative research? Come to one of our events this fall to learn more about different types of qualitative research and connect with other qualitative graduate students and faculty members.

Narrative-Based Research

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27
3:00 P.M. - 4:30 P.M.
BLAKE 210

Dr. Steven Maynard-Moody (Public Affairs & Administration) will speak on the importance of narratives and story collection in qualitative research, and various ways to analyze them.

Ethnographic Research Panel

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25
3:00 P.M. - 4:30 P.M.
BLAKE 210

Dr. Ben Chappell (American Studies), Dr. Katie Rhine (African & African-American Studies and Geography & Geographic Science), and Dr. Akiko Takeyama (Women, Gender & Sexuality Studies) will discuss best practices and answer questions.