

February 15, 2019, 11am. Political Science Department faculty meeting

Present: Don Haider-Markel, Chair, Nazli Avdan, Christina Bejarano, Hannah Britton, Brittnee Carter, Paul Johnson, John Kennedy, Patrick Miller, Kevin Mullinix, Gary Reich, Robert Rohrschneider, Clay Webb, Michael Wuthrich

Absent: Mark Joslyn

Don Haider-Markel, Chair, began the meeting with at 11am by handing the meeting to the East Asian studies search committee.

John Kennedy provided an update on the East Asian Security search following the on-campus interviews of Bang, Bartlett, Bae, and Zhang.

Following discussion a round of secret ballot approval voting was conducted. The results of the approval voting revealed that Bae, Bang, and Zhang received more than 50% approval, while Bartlett did not.

Next faculty used secret ballots to conduct a rank order vote of the candidates to determine who would receive the offer first. The rank order results revealed the following rank order: Zhang, Bang, and Bae.

The chair thanked the committee for a solid search and said that negotiations would begin with Zhang.

The meeting was adjourned before noon