Don Haider-Markel, Chair, began the meeting with at 11am by discussing the existing 3 year hiring plan and suggested revisions.

A number of suggestions were made to increase the range for base salary and for start-up funds.

A friendly revision of the Democratic Institutions and Security (American and Policy) position was made to include language on law and policy.

A friendly revision of the International Organizations position in year 2 was made to include language on international law.

A new open field position was suggested in Identity Politics for year 3, with open field. It was then suggested that this position be listed in year 1.

A new position in year 3 on security and intelligence, open sub-field, was suggested.

The suggested revisions will be distributed to faculty and another faculty meeting held if necessary before submission to the College office.

The meeting was adjourned before noon
