Lyle Olsen Graduate Student Essay Contest

The Sport Literature Association seeks entries for its annual graduate student competition, the Lyle Olsen Graduate Student Essay Contest.

Essays must pertain, in some significant way, to the literature of sport. For examples of exemplary treatments of sport-related subject matter, applicants are invited to consult the association's peer-reviewed journal, Aethlon, and past proceedings of the association's Annual Conference.

The winner will receive a small stipend, publication in Aethlon, a year's subscription to the journal, and some travel funds to attend and present the paper at the annual conference.
